Keith Ng

Biography

Keith Ng is an Interactive Art Director from Vancouver, BC. Has a BAsc in Interactive Arts and Sciences, which he completed, at Simon Fraser University from 2001 - 2005.

Upon graduation, he arrived at Electronic Arts Canada (2005-2006) as an Interface Designer working on PSP titles such as FIFA 2007, and Fight Night Round 3. Quickly learning and developing his skills as also a freelance designer/developer, Keith became the Interactive Art Director at Grip Limited in Toronto. Working on clients such as Acura, Budweiser, Guinness, and Honda. Keith has humbled every opportunity in driving and providing art direction for these national brands.

Keith is open to freelance/contractual work or fulltime opportunities.
